

Connect the dots to reveal an iconic product
from the historic city of Norwich!

Bring the historic Norwich Castle to life by adding your favorite colours to it!

Search in all directions to find the hidden people, places, and famous flavors of the fine city of Norwich!

Can you find all 15 hidden gems of the Fine City?

- Castle - The Norman keep overlooking the city.
- Cathedral - Boasting the second-tallest spire in England.
- Canaries - the beloved nickname for Norwich City FC.
- Broads - The famous nearby network of navigable rivers and lakes.
- Elm Hill - The most famous medieval cobbled street in the city.
- Guildhall - The historic flint building in the market square.
- Mousehold - The heath offering the best panoramic view of the skyline.
- Tombland - The historic heart of the city (it's not as spooky as it sounds).
- Norfolk - The beautiful county Norwich calls home.
- Colman - The family name behind the world-famous yellow brand.
- Mustard - The spicy condiment synonymous with the city.
- Alan Partridge - The fictional radio host who put "North Norfolk Digital" on the map.
- Steve Coogan - The actor behind the legendary Alan Partridge.
- Jake Humphrey - The sports presenter and local lad.
- Delia Smith - The culinary icon and joint-majority shareholder of the Canaries.